“...a sound mind in a sound body”

FOREWORD

"A sound mind in a sound body" . . . reverence for knowledge, love for beauty, worship for physical prowess . . . pride, culture, wisdom—these Grecian ideals hold the key to contentment, individual success, and ultimate dignity.

The objectives of American educators are patterned after similar qualities, which have made Greek society worthy of emulation. All curricula are designed to achieve a single goal—the impartation of "a sound mind in a sound body" to all youngsters, to all adults, to all Americans. And we, America's future, shall ever strive to embrace these attributes, so cherished by our teachers and friends.

The morning of Friday, May 5, buzzed with pleasant anticipation and bustling activity as students and faculty members made their preparations for Valley Varieties. # Senior Play

May I interest you in this useful household item, Madam?

On November 4 and 5, under the direction of Mrs. Adra T. Suchorsky the Senior Class presented George Washington Slept Here, a memorable comedy written by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufmann.

The story centered upon Newton Fuller, a city gent who purchased a country estate where George Washington had reputedly slept. Newton rushed headlong into this venture, before consulting his wife, checking his budget or even seeing his prospective home! An ornery neighbor, a temperamental cook, and a stubborn old caretaker (a character role ably portrayed by Dave Fenwick) were the first to contribute to Mr. Fuller's woes. Matters became further complicated when the Fullers discovered that George Washington never set foot in the place—Benedict Arnold "slept here"!

Newton and Annabelle Fuller were portrayed by John Vigorita and Gale Harding. Lois Aley played their daughter Madge, and Thom Hemingway excelled in his performance as Raymond, the Fullers' roguish nephew. Karen Weil and Bob Gibson were Rena Leslie and Clayton Evans, actor and actress on the stage's stage. Mr. Prescott, the Fullers' fiendish neighbor, and Newton's obnoxious Uncle Stanley were played by Ernie Johnson and Henry Neumann. Charlene Cato and Carol Svecz portrayed Katie and Hester, the Fullers' tempestuous maids. Sandy Parker played Mrs. Douglas, a representative of the County Historical Society. Bob Fass, Nancy Slamon, Jim Dwan, Sue McLaughlin, and Richie Sultan were Madge's youthful chums.

Cookie Schmidt, assisted by Jeanne Heavilin, served as properties manager, and Blanche Beemer was stage manager. Sound effects were provided by Bob Gibson, Pat Green, and Sue Fleming.

And then the sky fell in!

Oh! What a darling outfit!

Hail, hail, the gang's all here!

Let's call a truce.

Just one more—please?

I now dub thee Sir Lancelot!

You'll never guess what I bought!

It's just one of my off days!

Crowning of the Cedar Queen.

The Roaring Twenties Roar Again!

Senior Activities

"Flappers' Follies" was the original theme of the Senior Dance held in the cafeteria on Friday, March 3. Music and lively chatter were provided by guest disc jockey, Don Richards.

As a special feature of the evening, Rose Marie Casilli, known professionally as Jani Grant, sang her new record, "Triangle." Prizes for dancing the Charleston and having the most authentic costumes added a special flapper touch to this gala senior project.

1960 CROSS COUNTRY SQUAD

Passaic Valley's Cross Country team, coached by Mr. Joe Farrell, once again rolled up a very successful season. In dual meets the Hornets posted an outstanding record of eleven wins and one loss, losing only to Butler by three points.

The boys worked hard and their work was well rewarded. Besides their successful dual meet record, they won the Lakeland Conference Meet and became Passaic County Champions. They also placed fifth in the State Meet.

In the Passaic County Meet Valley took home first place in the Varsity and Junior Varsity competition, while the Freshmen took second place. Mike Ginnotti, Tim Baird, and Ed Schopwerth were individual winners in each of their races.

Senior lettermen were co-captains Bill Hagman and Jim Wedlake, Mike Ginnotti, Bob Reither, Jerry Ciccone, Roy McGeady, and Brian Hearn. Underclass lettermen were Ken Samra, Tom Mizzone, Tom Lee, Sal Olivito, and Tim Baird.

TONY SUGLIA
Coach

Anthony Suglia, in his initial year as Varsity Basketball coach, guided our players through a most successful season. Passaic Valley tied with Dover for the Lakeland Conference Championship and emerged victorious in the Lakeland Conference Jamboree. Although our Hornets were defeated in their first game they triumphed in the succeeding twelve, ending their season with a record of seventeen wins and four losses.

The team captain and All-Conference forward was senior Ray Freeman. Ray was the team's leading scorer and helped Valley in many games with his fine shooting.

Senior Joe Vesneski, a guard, sparked the team on many occasions. Joe was well known for his fine shooting, ball-handling, and defensive play.

The Hornets had one of their most capable ball-players in Owen Gillen. Owen, a junior, was the center. He lead the team in rebounding and was one of the team's leading scorers.

At the other forward positions were seniors Bob Maxwell and Nick Krisa, who did a fine job of rebounding and scoring.

Rounding out the starting five was another junior, Joe Karpiak. Joe was a fine ball-handler and the team's very good defensive man.

Others who saw action were seniors Otis Ingalls, Bob Colle, Frank Nochimson, and John Nigra. Juniors were John Porter and John Donaldson.

Next season should be as successful for Passaic Valley as was this season, with the return of many lettermen and the addition of many fine players from the Junior Varsity squad.

1961 TRACK SQUAD

Many of the undefeated Hornet cindermen of the 1960 season returned in 1961. The team won its first eight dual meets and increased its two season winning streak to eighteen. They were checked, however, in their ninth meet when they bowed to the Wayne Indians.

All the boys worked hard under Coach Farrell during the regular season. The Lakeland Conference Championship and retention of their renown as Passaic County Champions were their goals.

Among the outstanding members of the team were seniors Dick Canfield, Jerry Ciccone, Andy Di Brino, Len Dujets, Ken Fry, Bill Hagman, Allen Hughes, Roy McGeady, Dick Merrill, Henry Neumann, Jack Padalino, Bob Riether, Bert Sauter, and Jim Wedlake.

Underclassmen Tom Mizzone, Nick Prudenti, Ron Rombough, Ken Samra, Ed Schopperth, and Joe Zurcher also did a great deal to give the team its fine record.

Separation makes study so much better.

The present Freshman Class has been busily working to lay the foundations for their next three years at Valley. Their prime objective is the establishment of a sound class treasury. In conjunction with this, class members fared exceptionally well on the magazine drive, exceeding their goal by a large margin. The other major freshman project is their class dance which is held in the spring.

During their second year at Valley the Sophomores have made continued contributions to our school. Many of the class members are represented on our J.V. athletic teams, in various clubs, and on the honor roll. The Sophomores have also been busy selling football buttons to increase school spirit as well as to help fill their treasury. In addition, the Sophomores realized a fine profit from the magazine sale as a result of the students' enthusiastic participation.

The highlight of the Sophomore's school year was the Coronation Dance, at which the class King and Queen were presented.

We owe much to Mrs. Schleicher for her guidance in our class activities. Accepting the sponsorship of a Senior Class is a difficult task which Mrs. Schleicher successfully undertook. Her expert advice, supported by patient urging, deserves our appreciation.

Alma Mater

Hail to our Alma Mater,
Hail to the school we love,
Carry her name to glory,
Raise her banner above.
True sons and daughters loyal,
Keeping the torch alight,
Make her fame immortal,
The fame of the Green and White.
